FAQ's

Does an athlete need to be a Gold Member to play in J.O.'s or the qualifier (if necessary)?

Yes. These are both USA Water Polo sanctioned events. They need to pay the $ 149.00 Fee and assign Third Coast Aquatics as their club. The Windy City Wind-Up is sanctioned this year as well.

Can an athlete participate in the qualifier or any other summer tournament's if they are not planning on participating in J.O.'s?

Yes. With coach approval they can. They would need to pay any tournament player fees and be a gold member if necessary.

Can I be a J.O. Team member if I miss the qualifier or any of the other summer tournaments?

It is heavily recommended that if you are playing in J.O.'s you participate in all the summer tournaments. Exceptions can only be made by the head coach.

Can anybody sign up for Junior Olympic portion of the program?

No. The team is selected by the coaches at their discretion.

Does an athlete have to stay in the athlete room?

No. An athlete may stay in his parents room.

Are meals included?

No. All athletes must bring money for their own meals. We will attempt to book a hotel with free breakfast.
